School chronicle

The Easter Bunny

Back from the holidays, the children were surprised to see that the Easter Bunny had visited the classrooms.

He delivered chocolates into the children's handicrafts.

Book forum

As part of the Saint-Louis book forum, several authors visited the classrooms. The program included readings, drawing workshops and a variety of questions on writing and illustration.

The GS class met Sébastien Pelon, author and illustrator of children's books, including "Mon petit bout du monde. This book was inspired by L'île Louet, located in Morlaix Bay, not far from the Island of Batz, our blue class destination.

Chronicles from the crib

Easter Week

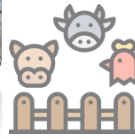

Easter week was an opportunity for the children to experience some wonderful moments of discovery, sharing and creativity.

Throughout the week, the little ones took part in a variety of activities to celebrate the festival.

Zoo outing

On their outing to the zoo, the children were surprised to see the monkeys and gorillas:

the animals found some hard-boiled eggs and enjoyed eating them in front of the children - it was both fun and fascinating to watch!

Spring breakfast

Children, parents and staff shared croissants and fruit juice at the traditional seasonal breakfast!

Chronicles from the kindergarten

GS/CP meeting

Our GS pupils experienced an important milestone: they met their future CP teacher!

They took advantage of the opportunity to play games and share a snack with their first-year classmates, in glorious sunshine.

Basel Botanical Garden

With the Easter holidays just around the corner, the students took a gourmet plunge into the world of Swiss chocolate.

PS and MS discovered Basel's botanical garden during a guided tour on the theme of the cocoa tree. The GS class will have the pleasure of visiting the garden in the near future.

What's more, the children created a self-portrait by painting with chocolate and coffee!

Elementary and 6th class chronicles

"In the footsteps of spring"

All the students gathered at the Merian Gärten to explore the colors of spring.

Through workshops on the 5 senses, they discovered nature in a fun way.

World cup Finals

CE1 and CE2 attended the final of a major international equestrian competition.

They discovered the world of horses in a sporting and festive atmosphere.

Accordion session

A musician came to present her accordion to the students. They listened to lively tunes and discovered this beautiful instrument.

Bike training

The 5th graders took part in a bike training course led by a policewoman.

They learned about safety rules whilst having fun on two wheels.

Calcul@Tice

This month, the CE2 and CM1 pupils took part in the competition, each receiving an "Excellent" diploma.
