Gifts for the ones we love

In celebration of Mother's Day in France, the children prepared crafts to give as gifts.

Nursery Newsletter

Pistache!

On Monday, May 4, the nursery and preschool classes attended the PISTACHE show together. It was a lot of fun!

Kindergarten Update

Interdisciplinary Workshops

Over the course of two afternoons, all the kindergarten children gathered together to participate in spring-themed workshops.

Between physical expression, artistic creations, and organized chaos, it was a joyful mix!

Food

In German class, the PS and MS students worked on the food pyramid. Which foods should be eaten in large quantities and which should be limited? Lunch in the cafeteria provided a chance to put this into practice right away!

Elementary and 6th Grade Chronicle

Open-Class Day

On May 5, the students enjoyed a special day focused on cooperation. Divided into groups of 11 to 12 children, mixing students from all classes, they participated in a series of workshops centered on the theme of opposites.

This enjoyable time allowed the students to work together, interact with peers of all ages, and share a wonderful collective experience outside the usual classroom setting.

Throughout the day, the groups moved around the school to explore a variety of activities: escape games, percussion, games, theater, and many more.

Naturhistorisches Museum

All the classes visited the Natural History Museum, where they enjoyed a global photography exhibition on the theme of nature.

Bicycle Safety Training

The 4th and 5th graders had the opportunity to participate in a bicycle safety training session

Language Exams

On May 8 and 9, students took the DELFL exams; results are pending.

On May 30, the students took the Cambridge A2 for School exams; results are pending.

Calcul@Tice

This month, students in first and second grade participated in the "Calcul@Tice" competition; results are pending.
